High Plains Films presents.....

Varmints

“Viewers everywhere will ponder who, in the grand scheme of things, the true varmints are.” – Westword, Denver, CO

“Varmints is an engaging, thought-provoking 90 minutes. Wherever you come down on the prairie dog issue, you will find your ideas supported and challenged in this movie.”

– Colorado Daily

“Darkly humorous...the 91 minute work spans several western states and a range of opinions about the prairie dog. Intermixed are the jarring scenes of a band of exuberant shooters whose remarkable enthusiasm for prairie dog hunting is matched by their disdain for what Denver’s Mark Mason calls ‘animal cultists.’”
